

Forging Footsteps into the Future

2-part Community Organizing Workshop

October 1 & 15, 2011 — 10:00am-3:00pm,

NAYA Family Center, 5135 NE Columbia Boulevard, Portland, OR 97218

Here is your opportunity to learn broad based, grassroots, relational community organizing at its finest.

This 10 hour workshop is designed to give participants a partial picture and partial understanding of the importance of the Steps of Organizing and will build on the skills of our community leaders and activists. Our grandmothers and grandfathers taught us to have an integrated vision. Each of us are charged with the responsibility to work for the continuation of life and well being of our families. Come to learn how we can work together to strengthen our voice for community change.

Some of the topics for learning are:

- Historical context for current political environment
- Gauging community strengths and barriers
- Mediating Institutions
- Relational Meetings and The Power of Story

Sponsored by:

The
Portland Youth
& Elders Council

The Great Elders were mighty leaders who faced impossible problems. How they dealt with them may provide lessons for a world that offers no compromises.

Lunch will be provided, please RSVP to Donita S. Fry, 503-288-8177 ext. 284, donitasf@nayapdx.org
